

Summer Reading Club

Reading is a vital foundation of a child’s learning and engagement for life. Participate in the Summer Reading Club to encourage children to read for fun and enjoyment all summer long, thereby sustaining their skills into the coming school year and facilitate recreational reading.

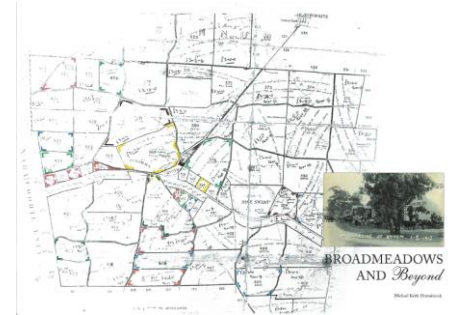

Receive information, registration forms and a starter’s pack at the Library for children in preschool, primary and secondary schools. Get reading and book into programs for bookclub, bedtime stories session, co-reading, craft session, design a book cover and wind up. Registration also offers a chance to win prizes and access to online activities.
